In Madras markets are of 2 Kinds

(a) Public (b) Private

Sec 117 A of the Madras L. B Act Lays down that the Taluk Board may declare any place ordinarily or periodically used or intended to be used for the sale of meat fish, fruit, grain Vegetables or other perishable articles of food or for the sale of live stock or poultry, to be a market provided that no such declaration shall be made in respect of any single shop or of any group of shops not being more than three in number"

Thus the Taluk Board appears to be the authority for authorising the opening of new weekly markets but in order to abolish weekly market Govt Sanction has to be obtained under sub sec 2 of Sec 117 B of the said act.

As regards the opening of private market a license has to be obtained from the Taluq Board before one is established (Vide Sec 117 E of the Madras L.B. Act and the Taluq Board may close private markets if it is held or kept open contrary to certain provisions & an appeal lies to the Dt Bd (Vide Sections 117 I & j of the Madras L.B Act)

In Bombay, the establishment of markets & fairs is regulated by Act VI of 1862 under which the orders of the Dt Magistrate permitting the holding of a market or fair is necessary before it is established. The orders of the Magistrate is open to appeal to the Commissioner within 6 weeks & his order of the Commissioner shall be final —

S I R,

Adverting to Government order No.9732-50/L.B.304-10-13 dated 9th June 1913 directing that the practice of obtaining the previous sanction of Government to the opening of New weekly markets the revival of ~~the~~ extenct ones or the abolition of the existing markets should continue, I have the honor to state that in many places weekly markets are held for the convenience of purely local trade where mere necessaries of life are sold and purchased. All the big shandies are already well established institutions any change in which will be difficult. The new markets opened from time to time are intended for the benefit of a group of small villages, 10 to 15 in number, and they are held mostly in the interior of the District. Large crowds of people do not gather on these occasions necessitating the making of special arrangements to control and regulate them. For the organisation and management of such petty markets I think that the sanction of Government is unnecessary. The matter may, I beg to suggest be left to the discretion and management of the District Boards as it will save delay and correspondence. In order to harmonise conflicting interests of different District Boards it may be ordered that no new santhe should be opened within 5 miles from the frontier of a District without the consent of the District Board of the adjacent District and where such District Boards cannot agree the matter may go up to Government for orders. It seems to me that it is desirable to encourage trade - even petty trade - by such means.

I request that you will be so good as to place these suggestions before Government for their consideration.

I have the honor to be,

S I R,

Your most obedient servant,

C S Balasundaramayya
